

A.C.E.S. AFTERSCHOOL

Bigfork ACES Weekly Update - Oct 7, 2016

Farewell Bailey Dance Party!

Thanks for the time you have given ACES! You made it a better place.

TAMARACK TIME!!!

Saturday, October 8 at 1pm (Tomorrow)

Come check out the "kids" table. ACES kids are entering a hearty Alphabet

Stew, baked s'mores and EggRolls! Check it out.
Electric Avenue - DowntownBigfork

An old fashioned celebration of harvest! Food tastings, harvest decorations and entertainment. There will be specials being offered by Bigfork Merchants all day long. We will also have Birds of Prey on display.

Food tasting starts at 1:00pm and tickets are only $5.00 for Tamarack Members (you can sign up to join there) and children under 5 are free. Then stick around for the Oktoberfest celebration at the Garden Bar where you can get free beer and brats for Customer Appreciation starting at 2pm.

Announcements

Montana 21st CCLC program has been one of fifteen states selected to work with NASA on a Scientific Research Process Project. Montana will be working on Parachuting onto Mars and Why do astronauts need pressure Suits?

Bigfork ACES middle school students will be working with scientists from NASA to assist them with this project. The project with NASA will run from October to March.

The programs who will be working on this project are: Frenchtown, Centerville, Bigfork ACES, Hot Springs, Alberton, Boulder, Huntley, Rocky Boy, and Conrad.

We are introducing Girl Scouts to all the girls at ACES! Cost is only $15.00 per year and there is no uniform required.

Girls will work on badges, learn what community service is and develop strong character through learning to give back to our world! Please ask how you can join!

ACES Kid of the Week Jordan St. Sauver

Jordan is in 6th grade and is proud to say that she has been attending ACES her whole school life. Jordan is an awesome example to younger kids. She is helpful and compassionate. Her favorite thing to do in life at the moment is PLAY SOCCER! Thanks for being our "Kid of the Week".
